

TENNIS DEVELOPMENTAL PLAY

(AGES 11 -14)

US Sports Institute's Development Play Tennis caters for intermediate players with previous experience of the game. Using curriculums and guidelines set out by the USTA, Development Play Tennis allows participants to work towards refining the fundamental skills in stroke production, footwork and court movement. Ideal for players looking to progress beyond the beginner level, Development Play Tennis focuses on rally consistency, court awareness and other aspects of the sport essential to match play at an intermediate standard. Please note: Previous tennis experience is necessary; players must provide their own racket.
